

Lou Brown's Street Smart Systems

Street Smart[®] Q & A Group Coaching Program

How would you like your real estate questions answered by a 30-year veteran who's bought and sold hundreds of properties and trained and coached thousands of investors through their most trying real estate deals and challenges?

For a limited number of participants, Louis "Lou" Brown has agreed to allow his students to submit deals and questions to be answered on a group call – live, two times per month.

Whether or not you have a question you'll get the benefit of incredible content through detailed answers to the questions submitted only by the limited group. Time permitting he'll open up the line for live questions and follow-up. Every call will be different, so you won't want to miss a single one. Therefore, the call will be posted for a limited time and you will be given a secret passcode to listen to the call if you can't hear it live.

As soon as you register you'll be sent the date, phone number and secret passcode for the very next call.
